DECLARATION OF TRUST

f) to a trust that irrevocably holds property that has been transferred to it under a registered education savings plan for one of the purposes described in section 1 b) and in subparagraphs 8 a) to f) and that are permitted by the applicable laws. These transfers must be in accordance with section 204.9(5) of the Income Tax Act. The effective date of such a transfer from the registered education savings plan must be set in accordance with section 146.1(6.1) of the Income Tax Act (Canada).

It is understood that no payment shall be made from the plan when fair market value of the plan's assets is less than the total of all grants paid to the plan less any grant monies withdrawn from the plan unless the payment is an educational assistance payment made to or on behalf of a beneficiary and the full amount of the payment is attributable to grants. The Promoter shall determine whether the conditions prior to remittance of an education assistance payment have been fulfilled; this decision will be binding and mandatory for the subscriber, the beneficiary and any other person who may be entitled to payments under the plan.

Each subscriber acknowledges and understands that the Canada Education Savings Act or a designated provincial program requires a beneficiary to repay any grant money received that exceeds the limit prescribed by the applicable laws. If a person is a beneficiary of more than one registered education savings plan, it is the responsibility of that person alone to ensure that all grant payments he or she receives beyond the limit set out in the applicable laws are reimbursed. The promoter will provide a notice to the beneficiary stating this obligation.

9) BENEFICIARY: The person designated by the subscriber in this application as the beneficiary of this plan will be the primary beneficiary of this plan. The subscriber may be a beneficiary of this plan. The subscriber or, upon his or her death, any other person (including the subscriber's estate) that acquires the rights of the deceased subscriber or that pays contributions to the plan on behalf of a beneficiary becomes the subscriber and may, upon written notice, revoke the beneficiary and designate another beneficiary of the plan. The instructions provided by the subscriber through a written notice to the promoter must be specific and satisfactory to the promoter. If more than one written notice is issued to the promoter, the one dated most recently shall prevail.

Only one beneficiary may be designated by the same subscriber in a plan.

10) SUBSCRIBER'S ACCOUNT: The promoter maintains, in the subscriber's name, an account recording:

- a) contributions made to the plan by or on behalf of the subscriber;
- b) reimbursement to the subscriber of contributions made to the plan;
- c) investments and income from these investments;
- d) the trustee's fees and the administrative expenses paid;
- e) payments made to or on behalf of a beneficiary as educational assistance payments;
- f) payments made to designated post-secondary educational institutions or to a trust to the benefit of such institutions;
- g) grants.

The promoter will send a statement of account to the subscriber on an annual basis providing information on the period covered by the statement.

11) DEATH OF THE SUBSCRIBER: If the subscriber dies while the plan remains in force:

- a) if there is a co-subscriber and the assets are held jointly with right of survivorship (outside Quebec only), the rights of the deceased as the subscriber of the plan will pass to the co-subscriber and may be exercised by him or her;

- b) if nobody replaces the subscriber, as indicated in paragraph 1n), the balance of the contributions will remain in the plan until the estate's legal representative provides guidelines regarding payment of the balance and the promoter receives the documents it regards as necessary to making any such payment.

12) MINIMUM AMOUNT TO BE MAINTAINED: The plan's assets may never be below $1,000, failing which the promoter may end the plan and return to the subscriber the plan's contribution portion while paying the plan's income portion to a post-secondary educational institution of its choosing, with the the promoter's costs, fees and expenses deducted.

13) PROMOTER'S FEES: The promoter is entitled to payment of its usual fees for administering the plan, which the subscriber acknowledges knowing and which may be collected from the plan's assets. Written notice of any change in fees will be sent to any subscriber at least thirty (30) days prior to entering into force.

Moreover, the Promoter is entitled to compensation for the services it provides under this agreement in accordance with the rates in force from time to time as well as to reimbursement of all income taxes charged to it as the plan's promoter and to reasonable fees for all further services provided under this agreement, based on the time and responsibilities involved.

If the subscriber fails to pay the fees, charges, disbursements and income taxes mentioned above, the promoter will be entitled, on written notice of thirty (30) days, to deduct from the plan's assets all amounts mentioned above as it shall determine and may, at its discretion, liquidate the plan's assets and convert them to cash to obtain the said amounts, with the promoter hereby being specifically authorized to do so. The subscriber will then owe the promoter all fees, charges, disbursements, etc. that exceed the plan's total assets.

14) PROMOTER'S LIABILITY: The promoter assumes responsibility for administering the plan. However, the promoter will in no way be liable for the investments decided upon by the subscriber.

The subscriber will indemnify the promoter and hold it harmless against any claims, losses, fees or taxes resulting from the plan. The promoter may act on the faith of any written item it regards as authentic and that is signed by the subscriber or by his or her legal representative and will have no obligation to conduct any research or investigation in this regard.

15) PROMOTER/TRUSTEE: As the promoter and trustee of the plan, Desjardins Trust will ensure that a Canadian education savings grant application is executed as planned. Once awarded, the grant will be invested in the manner set out by the subscriber. The trustee will take care of the grant reimbursement required under the Canada Education Savings Act or a designated provincial program.

The plan will comply with the conditions established under the Canada Education Savings Act and the education savings regulations or under a designated provincial program. The subscriber agrees to provide to Desjardins Trust, the promoter and trustee, the information enabling it to apply and administer the grants pursuant to the related legislation.

- 18) RESIGNATION OF THE TRUSTEE: The trustee may at any time resign from its duties by providing sixty (60) days' notice to the subscriber. The replacement trustee must be a commercial company domiciled in Canada and authorized to perform the duties of a trustee. The replacement trustee agrees that the plan's assets may be used only to serve the purposes set out in the "Withdrawals" section of this declaration of trust (section 8). Upon the expiry of the period of sixty (60) days, the trustee must transfer all the assets it then holds pertaining to the plan to any other trustee under the terms of the legislation.
- 19) REPLACEMENT OF THE PROMOTER: Provided that the tax authorities and all other authorities concerned have been notified previously, the promoter may transfer all rights pertaining to the plan to any other company domiciled in Canada insofar as it is authorized by Employment and Social Development Canada to assume the role of RESP promoter. The replacement promoter will give the subscriber prior notice of the plan's transfer and of any change that may be made to this agreement following replacement of the promoter, in accordance with section 20.
- 20) MODIFICATION OF THE PLAN: The promoter may amend this plan to ensure that it complies at all times with the registration conditions of the legislation.

Moreover, the Promoter may, from time to time and at its discretion, amend, the terms and conditions not related to the registration conditions of this plan or to the legislation, including any change of fees, but the Promoter agrees to send written notice of thirty (30) days to the subscriber before any such amendment(s) come into force.
